On Pilgrimage

Before I embarked on my trip to the National Eucharistic Congress last summer with a group from my archdiocese, we had an orientation meeting. At that meeting, the coordinator of the trip shared with us "The Five Rules of Pilgrimage." If you're not familiar with them (I wasn't), here they are:

1. Don't complain.
 2. Don't complain. (It's so important, it's listed twice.)
 3. When you see a bathroom, use it.
 4. When someone offers you something, receive it.
 5. When someone asks you for something, give it.
- It's great advice for a pilgrimage, but more than that, I think it's great advice in general. So when I read today's Gospel and I hear Jesus say essentially the same thing to his disciples as they set out to evangelize (well, minus the bathroom tip, but those weren't as much of a thing in biblical Judea), I come to an important realization. The whole Christian life is a pilgrimage. Too often, life falls short of my expectations. An opportunity didn't work out. A day didn't go the way I planned (like, at all). A person didn't accept me. And I ball up my fists and stomp my feet like a full-grown Veruca Salt, and I yell: I cannot work in these conditions! And then, I imagine God, on his celestial throne, sighs and opens the Book of the Gospels (surely he keeps it handy, don't you think?) to Luke, Chapter 10. And he whispers in my heart what he said to his disciples 2,000 years ago. Don't complain. Be open and give of yourself, and in turn, receive what comes your way, whatever it is. If it's good, rejoice. If it's not good, move on. And in the end, remember where you're headed — the place you're trying to go. Oh, and again: don't complain.

Offering Envelopes

Over the last few months we have been overhauling our "Census Program" which will enable us better access to your weekly giving data. We have been working with our envelope supplier, "Church Budget Company", while developing this new program. It is nearing a finish. The one last thing that we need to do is renumber the envelopes. I know for many of you, you have had the same number forever and we apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. For those of you who have auto pay, please be sure to change your numbers when notified.

LORRAINE'S SOUP KITCHEN & PANTRY—has 2 part time positions open. We are looking for a 20 hour per week Kitchen Coordinator, who helps prep, cook, serve meals, organize volunteers and plan menus. Hours are Monday—Friday 2-6 p.m.. Rate of pay is between $15- $16 per hour based on experience. We are also looking for someone to drive our mobile pantry truck and help with food distribution at the mobile sites around Chicopee. Hours are Monday—Thursday 3:30—6:00 p.m. Rate of pay is $16.00 per hour. Both positions do require some lifting and bending. If you or someone you know is interested or wants more information, please contact Kim Caisse at Lorraine's 413-592--9528 or 413-474-2991. E-mail Executivedir@lorrainessoupkitchen.com

Due to an unfortunate incident, we are asking anyone who is lighting the candles for your intentions, please do not leave your donations in the money box. We have noticed an individual trying to take money and just recently the entire box. Thanks to the quick actions of one of our ushers, he was stopped. If you would like to light a candle, please put your donations in the envelopes provided and place in the collection basket. We received quite a few envelopes this week, so thank you for your understanding. We are working on a safer solution to this problem.
